DEPUTY CLERK

PETITION FOR DAMAGES

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Plaintiff, THE BULLDOG, INC., a corporation having its principal place of business in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, who respectfully asserts as follows:

1.

Made Defendant herein is STARR SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE COMPANY (hereinafter "STARR"), a foreign insurer authorized to do business in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana.

2.

Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court based on the object and amount in dispute and the action complained of relating to an insurance contract on real property in Orleans Parish, State of Louisiana.

3.

In or around 1996, Plaintiff acquired the property located at 1019 Pleasant Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70115 (the "Property").

4.

Plaintiff and Defendant entered into a contract of insurance, whereby Plaintiff agreed to make cash payments to Defendant in exchange for Defendant's promise to compensate the Plaintiff for losses, including, but not limited to, building damage and business personal property losses, at the Property.

5.

On or about October 28, 2020, Orleans Parish, State of Louisiana was affected by Hurricane Zeta, which caused catastrophic damage throughout the region.

6.

Due to Hurricane Zeta, the Property experienced significant damage, including, but not limited to, roof and interior water damage.

7.

On or about December 21, 2020, Plaintiff notified its commercial property insurance carrier, STARR, of the damages to the Property as a result of Hurricane Zeta and the need for necessary repairs that were covered under its Insurance Policy ("the Policy").

8.

On or about January 12, 2021, an adjuster or representative of STARR visited the Property and conducted an inspection. At the time of the inspection, the adjuster surveyed the Property and made note of the extensive damage to the Property.

9.

Despite having documented severe damage to the Property, on February 24, 2021, STARR noted a $600.00 repair for damage to an ice and water shield and a metal ridge cap which was covered under the Policy, but denied coverage for the remaining damages, claiming the damage was the result of long-term deterioration, wear and tear, and failure to adequately maintain the property and make repairs, not hurricane force winds.

10.

The Policy sued upon provided property and business personal property coverage between the period of February 1, 2020 and February 1, 2021.

11.

Plaintiff has faithfully paid the policy premiums to Defendant to specifically provide coverage in the event of property damage, business personal property losses and extra expenses caused by a hurricane.

12.

Despite receiving satisfactory proof of loss, STARR has failed to pay Plaintiff's claim within the time limits provided by LA R.S. 22:1973 and LA R.S. 22:1892 for its losses covered by its Policy.

13.

Defendant's denial of Plaintiff's claim and failure to make an appropriate unconditional tender despite having received sufficient proof of loss is in bad faith, arbitrary, capricious and without probable cause.

14.

Accordingly, STARR is liable unto Plaintiff as follows;

- a) Failing to timely initiate a loss adjustment in violation of La. R.S. § 22:1892;
- b) Failing to make a written offer to settle Plaintiff's claims within thirty days after receipt of satisfactory proofs of loss of the claim, in violation of La. R.S. § 22:1892;
- c) Misrepresenting pertinent facts relating to coverages at issue, in violation of La. R.S. §§ 22:1973 and 22:1892;
- d) Failing to pay the amount of a claim due within an appropriate time after receipt of satisfactory proof of loss arbitrarily, capriciously, or without probable cause, in violation of La. R.S. §§ 22:1973 and 22:1892;
- e) Breach of contract; and
- f) Any other bad faith or breach of contract that may be proven at a trial.

15.

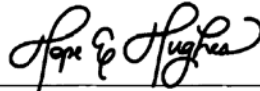

As a result, Defendant is answerable to the Plaintiff for the following damages:

- a) Damages to building;
- b) Damages to business personal property;
- c) Bad faith damages;
- d) Reasonable attorney's fees and costs;
- e) Past and present mental anguish and emotional distress; and

f) All other damages as may be shown at the trial of this matter.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, THE BULLDOG, INC., prays that Defendant, STARR SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE COMPANY, be served with process of this Petition for Damages and duly cited to answer same, that after all delays and due proceedings are complete there be judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant for the full amount of Plaintiff's damages, plus legal interest from the date of judicial demand until paid, bad faith damages, together with attorney's fees, all costs incurred in this matter, and any other general or equitable relief the Court deems proper.

PRAYER

However, to the extent a response is deemed required, Defendant denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any judgment against or recovery from Defendant in this lawsuit, including (without limitation) economic damages, interest, bad faith damages, attorneys' fees, court costs, and other unspecified relief referenced in the un-numbered prayer for relief following paragraph 15 of Plaintiff's Petition.

DEFENDANT'S AFFIRMATIVE AND OTHER DEFENSES

First Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, on the basis that Plaintiff's Petition fails to state a claim against Defendant upon which relief can be granted.

Second Defense

Plaintiff's claims are subject to the "Choice of Law and Choice of Venue" provision of the Policy, which dictates that any suit, action, or proceeding must be brought solely and exclusively in a New York state court or a federal district court sitting within the State of New York, and that the laws of the State of New York shall solely and exclusively be used and applied in any such suit, action, or proceeding.

Third Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the terms, conditions, limitations, exclusions, and deductibles contained in the Policy, including (without limitation) the terms, conditions, limitations, and deductibles set forth and/or referenced in the Policy.

Fourth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, on the basis that Plaintiff's claimed right of recovery under the Policy is subject to the applicable deductible(s) specified in the Policy. Moreover, Plaintiff's recovery under the Policy, if any, must be offset and reduced by said deductible(s).

2023 JAN 03 P 03:44

CIVIL

DISTRICT COURT

Fifth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Policy's provision prohibiting legal action against Defendant under the Policy unless the insured(s) have fully complied with all terms of the Policy.

Sixth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the physical loss or damage claimed by Plaintiff did not occur during the applicable coverage period (as required by the Policy).

Seventh Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the physical loss or damage claimed by Plaintiff was not caused by (or did not result from) a covered cause of loss (as required by the Policy).

Eighth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Policy's exclusion(s) regarding deterioration, depletion, inherent vice, latent defect, wear and tear, rust, or corrosion.

Ninth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to Plaintiff's failure to satisfy all conditions precedent to the recovery they seek in this lawsuit.

Tenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiff failed to take all reasonable steps to mitigate, minimize, or avoid the damages allegedly sustained and/or to protect the Property from further damage. Plaintiff's recovery under the Policy must be offset and reduced accordingly.

Eleventh Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiff's alleged damages were caused, in whole or in part, by the negligent acts and/or omissions of Plaintiff and/or omissions of third parties over whom Defendant has and/or had no control.

Twelfth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Policy's Pre-Existing Damage Exclusion.

Thirteenth Defense

Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Policy's Roof Limitation Endorsement.

Fourteenth Defense

To the extent Plaintiff's Petition may be construed to seek statutory penalties, punitive damages, and/or exemplary damages in this lawsuit, any claim(s) for such damages are unconstitutional and violate the due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and of Article 1, Section 19 of the Texas Constitution for the following reasons: (a) the standards under which such claims are submitted are so vague as to be effectively meaningless and threaten a deprivation of property for the benefit of society without the protection of fundamentally fair procedures; (b) the highly penal nature of exemplary damages threatens the possibility of excessive punishment and almost limitless liability without the benefit of fundamentally fair procedures or any statutory limitations; (c) the introduction of evidence of Defendant's financial worth is so prejudicial as to impose liability and punishment in a manner bearing no relation to the extent of any injury allegedly inflicted or to any benefit from any alleged wrongdoing and, therefore, any verdict would be the result of bias and prejudice in a fundamentally unfair manner.

Fifteenth Defense

Starr adjusted Plaintiff's claim in good faith, and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable insurance policy, and in compliance with applicable statutory jurisprudential law.

Sixteenth Defense

Plaintiff has no statutory or jurisprudential right of action to recover attorney's fees or penalties under the facts of this case.

Seventeenth Defense

The petition is vague and ambiguous and calls for a more definitive statement of the causes of action and damages sought therein.

Defendant further reserves the right to assert additional defenses as this litigation proceeds.

DEFENDANT'S RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

By appearing and answering herein, Defendant does not waive, and expressly reserves, all rights and defenses that it may have (or that may arise) under the Policy and/or applicable law. Nothing herein shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of, or an estoppel to assert, any of the rights and defenses that Defendant may have (or that may arise) under the Policy and/or applicable law.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant Starr Surplus Lines Insurance Company prays that upon final judgment: (a) all relief requested by Plaintiff be denied; (b) all costs be taxed against Plaintiff; and (c) for such other and further relief to which Defendant may be justly entitled, whether at law or in equity.

DEFENDANT STARR SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE COMPANY'S MOTION TO COMPEL MORE COMPLETE RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Starr Surplus Lines Insurance Company ("Starr" or "Defendant") who moves this Honorable Court to issue an Order compelling Plaintiff The Bulldog, Inc. ("Plaintiff") to provide certain information requested in the Requests for Admission previously propounded to Plaintiff for the reasons that follow:

Plaintiff filed suit on October 28, 2022 against its commercial insurance carrier, Starr, concerning roof and interior water damage to its restaurant and bar business as a result of Hurricane Zeta, which occurred on October 28, 2020. (Exhibit A Petition p.1-5). Plaintiff alleges that Starr failed to make appropriate tenders to Plaintiff for damages from Hurricane Zeta in breach of the insurance contract. Plaintiff also asserts extra-contractual claims against Starr. (Exh. A. Petition ¶ 12-15). The petition alleges damage to both the building and personal property, and seeks bad faith penalties and attorneys' fees, as well as damage for mental anguish and emotional distress (Id.) The amount in controversy between the parties is not facially apparent from the petition.

2.

Two Requests for Admission ("Requests") were propounded to Plaintiff on February 2, 2023. (See Exhibit B Requests for Admission p. 1-2). The purpose of the Requests was to determine whether this matter is removable to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana. The Requests simply ask Plaintiff to admit or deny that the damages arising from the causes of action set forth in the petition exceed $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and inclusive of all actual damages including statutory penalties and attorneys' fees. (Id.)

VERIFIED

REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION 1

Amber Sheeler

3.

On March 3, 2023, Plaintiff responded to the Requests. (Exhibit A, Response to Request for Admission p. 3-4). In its response, Plaintiff objected to the Requests setting forth, in part, that the Requests were “[s]peculative and to the extent that it seeks an opinion that it is not qualified to give. It is up to the trier of fact to determine the value of the case, special damages, and general damages.” (Exhibit B p. 3-4).

4.

Counsel for Starr set a Rule 10.1 conference for April 21, 2023. The required conference took place between the parties on May 3, 2023, with counsel for Starr Emily Morrison and counsel for Plaintiff Hope Hughes participating in same. (Exhibit C. Emails dated April 14, 2023, April 28, 2023, May 3, 2023).

5.

Plaintiff’s counsel explained that Plaintiff did not know at the present time, and would not know the amount of damages sustained by Plaintiff until she received a report from the retained public adjuster who is “backed up” in preparing estimates and reports of damage. Counsel could not advise when such a report would be available or any information as to the value of damages.

6.

As such, Starr is required to file this Motion to Compel and seeks a Court order requiring Plaintiff to provide full and complete responses to Starr’s jurisdictional discovery so as to determine whether this matter may be removed to Federal court. Starr also seeks attorneys’ fees and court costs in the filing of this Motion to Compel.

WHEREFORE, Starr Surplus Lines Insurance Company prays that Plaintiff, The Bulldog Inc., be compelled to provide a substantive response by a date certain pursuant to the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure Article 1469 to the Requests for Admission and be ordered to pay reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in bringing this rule and the motion to compel filed in this matter.

IN SUPPORT OF ITS MOTION TO COMPEL MORE COMPLETE RESPONSES TO REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Defendant Starr Surplus Lines Insurance Company ("Starr" or "Defendant") propounded two (2) Requests for Admission to Plaintiff, The Bulldog, Inc., ("Plaintiff"). The Requests for Admission ("Requests") seek to ascertain the value of Plaintiff's claimed damages to determine whether this matter is removable to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana as there is diversity of citizenship between Plaintiff and Defendant. Plaintiff filed suit on October 28, 2022, against its commercial insurance carrier, Starr, for damages allegedly sustained as a result of Hurricane Zeta on October 28, 2020. (Exhibit A Petition). The petition alleges that the property "experienced significant damage, including, but not limited to, roof and interior water damage." (Id. at ¶6). Plaintiff owns a restaurant and bar located in Uptown New Orleans on Magazine Street. Plaintiff alleges that Starr failed to make appropriate tenders to Plaintiff for damages from Hurricane Zeta in breach of the insurance contract. Plaintiff also asserts extra-contractual claims against Starr. (Exh. A. Petition ¶ 12-15)

In addition to claiming damage to the building and personal property, Plaintiff seeks bad faith penalties and attorneys' fees, as well as damages for mental anguish and emotional distress. The amount in controversy between the parties is not facially apparent from the petition, (Exh. A. Petition). Likewise, the amount in controversy is not ascertainable from documents submitted to Starr in support of Plaintiff's claim.

The Requests for Admission ("Requests") were propounded to Plaintiff on February 2, 2023. (See Exhibit B Request for Admission p. 1-2). The Requests and Plaintiff's responses are reproduced below as follows:

DISTRICT COURT

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1

Admit or deny that the amount of your cause of action (or causes of action, if more than one) against Starr in your Petition for Damages filed on or about October 28, 2022, exceeds seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

ANSWER TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 1:

Plaintiff objects to this Request for Admission No. 1 as speculative and to the extent it seeks an opinion that it is not qualified to give. It is up to the trier of fact to determine the value of the case, special damages, and general damages. Plaintiff further objects to this Request Admission No. 1 as premature. Discovery is ongoing and Plaintiff's damages are not capable of being itemized in full at this time. Subjection to and without waiving the foregoing objections, denied as written.

REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2

Admit or deny that the total amount in controversy in this case exceeds the sum or value of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00), inclusive of all actual damages, exemplary damages, statutory penalties, and attorney's fees, exclusive of costs and judicial interest.

ANSWER TO REQUEST FOR ADMISSION NO. 2:

Plaintiff objects to this Request for Admission No. 2 as speculative and to the extent it seeks an opinion that it is not qualified to give. It is up to the trier of fact to determine the value of the case, special damages, and general damages.

Plaintiff further objects to this Request Admission No. 2 as premature. Discovery is ongoing and Plaintiff's damages are not capable of being itemized in full at this time. Subjection to and without waiving the foregoing objections, denied as written.

(Exhibit B. Request for Admissions and Responses. P. 1-4).

Counsel for Starr set a Rule 10.1 conference for April 21, 2023. The required conference took place between the parties on May 3, 2023, with counsel for Starr, Emily Morrison, and counsel for Plaintiff, Hope Hughes, participating. (Exhibit C. Emails dated April 14, 2023, April 28, 2023, May 3, 2023). During the phone conference, Plaintiff's counsel explained that Plaintiff did not know and would not know the amount of damages sustained by Plaintiff until counsel received a report from the retained public adjuster who is “backed up” in preparing estimates and reports of damage. Counsel could not advise when such a report would be available. Moreover, counsel for Plaintiff could not provide any information as to the value of damages claimed in other causes of action that will not be determined by the public adjuster, such as contents and personal property loss. Surely Plaintiff, a commercial establishment can, at this point 2.5 years after the loss, calculate how many bottles of liquor, cups, and napkins, etc., sustained damage from interior water leaks and the amount to replace these items.

2023 JUN 12 P 03:22

As set forth in Starr’s answer to the petition, the insurance policy at issue contains a choice of law and venue provision mandating that suit against Starr be brought solely and exclusively in a New York state court or a federal district court within the State of New York. (See Record, Starr’s Answer at ¶2). The purpose of the Requests was to determine whether this matter can be removed to Federal court. A case can only be removed to Federal court within one year from the date of filing of the lawsuit, which in this case was October 28, 2022. Federal district courts in the Eastern District of Louisiana have held that denying “for lack of information,” a request for admission that the amount in controversy did not exceed $75,000 was insufficient to establish amount in controversy in Hingle vs. Scottsdale Ins. Co., No. 08-5079, 2009 WL 361140, at *1 (E.D. La. Feb. 11, 2009) (Vance, J.). See also Ingram v. Glob. Hawk Ins. Co., No.14-0777, 2014 WL 2739459, at *4 (E.D. La. June 17, 2014) (Berrigan, J. finding that plaintiff’s equivocal response to defendant’s request for admission was insufficient to establish that the amount in controversy requirement was met.). Given that Starr did not receive any type of damage estimates, invoices, repair receipts, etc. from Plaintiff during the adjustment of the claim, and had not received any type of demand or documentation since that time, Starr seeks more information on damages through the Requests.

Plaintiffs’ petition does not contain an allegation, as required by La. Code of Civil Procedure Article 893 A. (1), that “[i]f a specific amount of damages is necessary to establish...the lack of jurisdiction of federal courts due to insufficiency of damages... a general allegation that the claim exceeds or is less than the requisite amount is required.” Starr asks this Court to order Plaintiff to provide a response to the Requests and either admit or deny that its damages fall below or exceed the $75,000 amount necessary to establish Federal jurisdiction so it can determine, prior to October 28, 2023, whether this matter may be removed to Federal court. Starr further seeks an

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, comes Plaintiff, THE BULLDOG, INC., a corporation having its principal place of business in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, who respectfully asserts as follows:

1.

Made Defendant herein is STARR SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE COMPANY (hereinafter "STARR"), a foreign insurer authorized to do business in the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana.

2.

Jurisdiction and venue are proper in this Court based on the object and amount in dispute and the action complained of relating to an insurance contract on real property in Orleans Parish, State of Louisiana.

3.

In or around 1996, Plaintiff acquired the property located at 1019 Pleasant Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70115 (the "Property").

4.

Plaintiff and Defendant entered into a contract of insurance, whereby Plaintiff agreed to make cash payments to Defendant in exchange for Defendant's promise to compensate the Plaintiff for losses, including, but not limited to, building damage and business personal property losses, at the Property.

2023 JUN 12 P 03:22

On or about October 28, 2020, Orleans Parish, State of Louisiana was affected by Hurricane Zeta, which caused catastrophic damage throughout the region.

6.

Due to Hurricane Zeta, the Property experienced significant damage, including, but not limited to, roof and interior water damage.

7.

On or about December 21, 2020, Plaintiff notified its commercial property insurance carrier, STARR, of the damages to the Property as a result of Hurricane Zeta and the need for necessary repairs that were covered under its Insurance Policy ("the Policy").

8.

On or about January 12, 2021, an adjuster or representative of STARR visited the Property and conducted an inspection. At the time of the inspection, the adjuster surveyed the Property and made note of the extensive damage to the Property.

9.

Despite having documented severe damage to the Property, on February 24, 2021, STARR noted a $600.00 repair for damage to an ice and water shield and a metal ridge cap which was covered under the Policy, but denied coverage for the remaining damages, claiming the damage was the result of long-term deterioration, wear and tear, and failure to adequately maintain the property and make repairs, not hurricane force winds.

10.

The Policy sued upon provided property and business personal property coverage between the period of February 1, 2020 and February 1, 2021.

11.

Plaintiff has faithfully paid the policy premiums to Defendant to specifically provide coverage in the event of property damage, business personal property losses and extra expenses caused by a hurricane.

12.

Despite receiving satisfactory proof of loss, STARR has failed to pay Plaintiff's claim within the time limits provided by LA R.S. 22:1973 and LA R.S. 22:1892 for its losses covered by its Policy.

13.

Defendant's denial of Plaintiff's claim and failure to make an appropriate unconditional tender despite having received sufficient proof of loss is in bad faith, arbitrary, capricious and without probable cause.

14.

Accordingly, STARR is liable unto Plaintiff as follows;

- a) Failing to timely initiate a loss adjustment in violation of La. R.S. § 22:1892;
- b) Failing to make a written offer to settle Plaintiff's claims within thirty days after receipt of satisfactory proofs of loss of the claim, in violation of La. R.S. § 22:1892;
- c) Misrepresenting pertinent facts relating to coverages at issue, in violation of La. R.S. §§ 22:1973 and 22:1892;
- d) Failing to pay the amount of a claim due within an appropriate time after receipt of satisfactory proof of loss arbitrarily, capriciously, or without probable cause, in violation of La. R.S. §§ 22:1973 and 22:1892;
- e) Breach of contract; and
- f) Any other bad faith or breach of contract that may be proven at a trial.

15.

As a result, Defendant is answerable to the Plaintiff for the following damages:

- a) Damages to building;
- b) Damages to business personal property;
- c) Bad faith damages;
- d) Reasonable attorney's fees and costs;
- e) Past and present mental anguish and emotional distress; and

f) All other damages as may be shown at the trial of this matter.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, THE BULLDOG, INC., prays that Defendant, STARR SURPLUS LINES INSURANCE COMPANY, be served with process of this Petition for Damages and duly cited to answer same, that after all delays and due proceedings are complete there be judgment in favor of Plaintiff and against Defendant for the full amount of Plaintiff's damages, plus legal interest from the date of judicial demand until paid, bad faith damages, together with attorney's fees, all costs incurred in this matter, and any other general or equitable relief the Court deems proper.
